Invitation

The International Association for Pattern Recognition (IAPR) Technical Committee 7 (TC-7 Remote Sensing) invites you to the 6th IAPR International Workshop on Pattern Recognition in Remote Sensing (PRRS 2010) (<http://www.iapr-tc7.org/prrs10>). This workshop is held in conjunction with the prestigious International Conference on Pattern Recognition (ICPR 2010) (<http://www.icpr2010.org>). The workshop is also co-sponsored by the IEEE Geoscience and Remote Sensing Society (GRSS) (<http://www.grss-ieee.org>).

Scope

This workshop has established itself as an important event for scientists involved in the combined fields of pattern recognition and remote sensing. These two research fields have always overlapped, but the large volumes of remote sensing data now coming from last generation sensors require new advanced algorithms and techniques for automatic analysis. This one-day workshop will be the ideal means to spread and exchange experiences by international researchers.

Venue

The workshop will be collocated with ICPR 2010 in Istanbul. Once the capital of the Roman, Byzantium and Ottoman Empires, Istanbul is attractive both for the beauty of the surrounding landscape and for its historical treasures. Istanbul is a natural gateway, offering a friendly welcome and genuine hospitality. It is a metropolis proud of its rich history and unrivalled natural beauty spread on two continents, Europe and Asia, divided by the Bosphorus.

Paper Submission

Papers must be written in English, have no more than four (4) double column pages, and should adhere to the ICPR conference submission guidelines regarding the paper format (see Paper Submission at the ICPR 2010 website <http://www.icpr2010.org>). Reviewing will be double-blind: authors will not know the names of the reviewers of their papers, and reviewers will not know the names of the authors. Details on paper submission are available on the workshop web site. In submitting a paper to PRRS, the authors acknowledge that no paper substantially similar in content has been or will be submitted to another conference or workshop during the PRRS review period. Accepted papers will be indexed in IEEE Xplore.
